College of Arts and Humanities (<https://www.csudh.edu/cah/>)
Department of Theatre and Dance (<https://www.csudh.edu/theatre-arts/>)

Program Description for the Bachelor of Arts in Theatre

The Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Arts prepare students in the areas of Performance, Theatrical Design and Technology, and Literature/History. The B.A. in Theatre Arts offers courses in the field of acting and directing, design and technical theatre, theatre history, dramatic literature, multicultural children's theatre, speech, and drama for the classroom. Students and faculty often collaborate with other departments including Art, Dance, Music, Digital Media, English and Humanities.

Our program is multi-cultural and multi-ethnic by nature and offers a wide range of theatre techniques to explore. The Theatre Performance Minor focuses on acting and directing, while the Theatre Education Minor doubles as both a general program and preparation for future teachers.

The Speech Minor trains students in speech support, articulation, organization, and non-verbal delivery skills preparing students for public speaking, debate, oral interpretation, and theatrical performance.

Features

Theatre Arts Majors and Minors participate in the department's ambitious production program through acting; scenic, lighting, and costume design; set construction; stage management; and theatre production. Students receive academic credit for their participation. Freshperson and sophomore Theatre Arts majors have the opportunity to secure roles in Theatre productions. The department presents four Theatre shows each year, in the University Theatre or Edison Studio Theatre that range in styles from Contemporary, Multicultural, Shakespeare to Musical Theatre. Students have the opportunity to participate each year at KCACTF (Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival), USITT (United States Institute for Theatre Technology, Speech and Debate Competitions, and other performance venues throughout the year.

The Department of Theatre and Dance maintains active membership in KCACTF (Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival), USITT (United States Institute for Theatre Technology, and ACDA (American College Dance Association. The Theatre Arts Program is accredited by the National Association of Schools of Theatre (NAST). NAST is located at

11250 Roger Bacon Drive, Ste. 21,
Reston, VA 22090.

Academic Advisement

The Theatre Arts Program places great importance on the advisement process. We request that students meet with their respective advisors for consultation. To obtain an advisor, students should contact Donis Leonard or Shaunté Caraballo to schedule a first meeting. Educational goals and previous theatre experience will be discussed during the first advisement meeting. Based on this discussion, the progression of the student's major and minor requirements will be planned. Career opportunities will also be discussed.

Dedication and commitment are the keys to the successful pursuit of a career in theatre. To help students achieve high academic and production standards, the department requires all majors and minors to pass their required classes with a "C" grade or better. Students who receive lower than a "C" will need to "Repeat and Cancel" that course in the following semester.

Preparation

Since theatre performance makes use of the whole person, awareness and development of the human body and voice are equally important as the development of the human mind. Students interested in performance can prepare by taking courses in speech, diction, singing, dance, fencing, stage combat, yoga, Pilates, and other recreational activities. Students interested in technical theatre and design may want to get experience in shop, drawing, sewing, sound, lighting, and scenic design.

Student Organizations

- Toro Forensics- is an award-winning Speech team that competes annually in Public Speaking, Debate, Oral Interpretation, and theatrical performance tournaments held throughout Southern California. Students acquire excellent training in speech support, articulation, organization, and non-verbal delivery skills.
- Teatro Dominguez our multicultural theatre company, provides touring shows that offers cross-cultural understanding both on campus and throughout the community.
- Black Theatre Collective is a performing arts company comprised of students, alumni, and guest artists. The Black Theatre Collective offers performances, industry showcases, and community outreach that illuminates the Black experience for people of all ages and ethnic groups.
- ETF (Equality Task Force) created by Faculty, Staff, and Students come together for spontaneous activities such as open mic night giving everyone an opportunity to share their artistic skills.

Graduation with Honors

An undergraduate student may graduate with Honors in Theatre Arts if the following criteria are met:

1. A minimum of 36 units in residence at CSU Dominguez Hills.
2. A minimum GPA of at least 3.5 in all courses is used to satisfy the upper-division requirements.

Career Possibilities

The BA in Theatre prepares students to further their education and professional career by pursuing an MA, MFA, or PhD in Theatre. With these advanced degrees there are positions available for teaching in the performance, history, or technical theatre areas in university and community college programs.

The fields of acting and directing are expanding as a result of year-round professional acting companies, the growth of summer and winter stock companies, outdoor and regional theatre, repertory companies, dinner theatre, and community theatre programs. Media platforms, commercial television, cable television, and the movie and music industry employ many actors, as well as other talented personnel in theatre management and technical theatre fields.

Related careers available to graduates include the following occupations: actor, playwright, drama coach, dramaturg, theatre historian, critic, designer (set, lighting, sound, costume), make-up artist, technician, theatre manager, director, producer, announcer, recreation director, dancer, musician, entertainer, arts administrator, sales representative, model, and dramatic agent.

Many graduates from the Theatre Arts Program find secondary careers in the fields of primary and secondary education. Our Theatre Arts majors and Theatre Education minors learn how to adapt theatre games, improvisation, pantomime, and storytelling, to help their students in primary and secondary classrooms to develop social, communication, creative, and problem-solving skills.
