

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

The College of Education houses the Department of Liberal Studies, the Division of Teacher Education, and the Division of Graduate Education. The College offers professional programs that prepare teachers, specialists in curriculum, counselors, and school and college/university administrators for the urban, multicultural community. These programs are designed to offer high quality educational opportunities for students at the undergraduate, post-baccalaureate, masters, and advanced levels.

Our Vision

Grounded in principles of justice, equity, and critical consciousness, we are committed to reflective, responsive, and purposeful praxis in teaching, scholarship, and leadership. Alongside the communities we serve, we prepare critical educators to co-create and enact transformative change.

Our Mission

Through self-examination, collective learning, and research, we construct brave spaces that foster the holistic development of educators. Together, we challenge and dismantle systems of power and privilege in institutions of education. We re-imagine equitable, responsive, and just learning experiences for all learners, especially those from minoritized groups within our college and in our local schools. We are committed to advancing the following:

- A justice-focused agenda
- The pursuit of equity
- Innovation in teaching and learning
- Rigorous and responsive research
- Collaboration with professional, local, and global communities, and student-centered partnerships
- Belief in the limitless potential of our work, each other, and those we serve

Liberal Studies

Liberal Studies is an interdisciplinary undergraduate major for students who intend to become elementary or special education teachers. Courses leading to the Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies are designed to support the acquisition of content knowledge in the subject areas taught in elementary schools as well as professional knowledge and dispositions. The Liberal Studies major is a Commission approved Elementary Subject Matter Program and the major offers two Integrated Teacher Education Programs (ITEPs) wherein students complete the BA as well as a preliminary teaching credential.

Division of Teacher Education (General Education)

Teacher Education offers preliminary credential programs for students who intend to teach in an elementary (multiple subjects) or secondary (single subject) classroom. Student teaching and Intern programs are available. Teacher Education also offers a Clear (Induction) Credential, a Master of Arts in Education with options in Curriculum and Instruction, Dual Language Learning, and Transitional Kindergarten.

Division of Teacher Education (Special Education)

Special Education offers preliminary Education Specialist Credentials in Early Childhood Special Education, Mild/Moderate, and Moderate Severe. Both traditional student teaching and university intern programs are available. Educational Specialists provide services to infants, children, and youth with disabilities. Special Education also offers a Clear (Induction) Credential, an added authorization in Early Childhood Special Education, and a Master of Arts in Special Education.

Division of Graduate Education

The Division of Graduate Education provides advanced knowledge and training in various professions in educational settings, such as School Leadership, Counseling, and Higher Education Administration. The School Leadership program offers both the Preliminary Administrative Service Credential and Clear Professional Administrative Services Credential, with an option to add on a Master of Arts in Education. The Counseling program offers the Master of Science degree in Counseling with options in School or College Counseling. Counseling students can also concurrently earn the Pupil Personnel Services Credential in School Counseling, the Child Welfare and Attendance Authorization, and a Certificate in College Counseling. The Higher Education Administration and Leadership program is a twelve-unit graduate certificate program designed for working professionals and individuals seeking advanced training and knowledge in the broad field of higher education administration and leadership.
