

CRIMINAL JUSTICE ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Demonstrate familiarity with the major concepts, theoretical perspectives, research, and case law in criminal justice administration.
2. Demonstrate critical thinking and skeptical inquiry in their analysis of problems and potential solutions related to criminal justice administration.
3. Understand and assess the role of diversity and multicultural perspectives in the policies, practices, and culture of criminal justice administration.
4. Present well-organized and well-supported arguments in both written and oral formats.
5. Evaluate and practice ethical decision-making in criminal justice administration.
6. Identify, access, utilize, and evaluate various forms of information
7. Demonstrate knowledge of Criminal Justice Administration environments by having the ability to write well-organization research papers and/or make oral presentations.
8. Explains diversity and/or multicultural perspectives.
9. Demonstrate application, analysis and decision making skills.
10. Ability to integrate current information technologies and approaches to evaluate criminal justice theories.